

2018 HNG Masters Retreat

Attendees: Elaine Denny, Rob Bond, Chris Fariss, Micah Gell-Redman, Will Hobbs, Alex Hughes, Jason Jones, Brad LaVeck, Nick Obradovich, Jaime Settle, Meredith Meacham, Mike Rivera, Tim Johnson, James Fowler, Vin Arceneaux, Johanna Dunaway

Location: Yosemite Field Station (<http://www.ucnrs.org/reserves/yosemite-field-station.html>)

Dates: October 27-28

Goals

1. Provide an opportunity for feedback on a research agenda or a single paper or project
2. Foster professional development during the pre-tenure years
3. Discuss life after tenure

Presentation

Presentations can take one of the follow forms:

1. An outline of a grand vision of your research goals and mission.
2. A book project.
3. A fully fleshed research design or a paper that is in the early stage of development.

Each participant is allotted 60 minutes. Presentations should be a 20-minute overview followed by 40 minutes of questions and constructive feedback. Presenters are encouraged to send any and all materials (an early draft of a paper, book chapters, slides, etc.) to the group by October 14.

Preliminary Agenda

Day One (Saturday)

9:30 – 10:30

Tim Johnson: Conditions for the evolution of wealth-sensitive social behaviors

10:45 – 11:55

Johanna Dunaway: An integrated theory of technological effects on information access, exposure, and processing

12:00 – 1:00

Elaine Denny: Prospects & Protest, Repression & Risk

Lunch

2:00 – 3:00

Chris Fariss: Misgovernance and Human Rights: Experimental Evidence of Illegal Detention without Intent

3:15 – 4:15

Brad LaVeck: Heterogenous Turnout from Otherwise Similar Types

4:30 – 5:30

Meredith Meacham: Research goals and mission overview

Dinner

Day Two (Sunday)

9:30– 10:30

Jason Jones: Stereotypical Gender Associations in Language Have Decreased Over Time

10:45 – 11:45

Will Hobbs: Who is Obamacare?

12:00 – 1:00

Micah Gell-Redman: TBD

Lunch

2:00 – 3:00

James Fowler: The Poetry of a Billion Steps

Group activity!

Dinner