

Human Nature Group Retreat

Saturday, April 21, 2018 - Corgi's Castle, Julian, CA

8:30-9:30 Morning Feast

9:30-11:45 Purging mediation effects on independent variables using Temporal Network Autocorrelation Models

9:30-10:15 Andres Gannon "‘One, if by land, and two, if by sea’: Introducing a Dataset on the Domains of International Crisis Behavior"

10:15-11:00 Shane Xuan "Selling Autocracy: How Institutions Undermine Democracy in Southeast Asia"

11:00-11:45 Rachel Schoner "Individual Petition in Human Rights Treaties"

11:45-12:00 Mid-Morning Mini-feast

12:00-12:45 Pre-feast 5-minute fiestas on process tracing using Monte Carlo Tree Searches

Leo Falabella "Political Economy of Capital Mobility"

Luke Sanford "Math stuff"

Yile Zhang "Is Accountability Possible in Countries without Competitive Elections?"

Nicole Letourneau "Moral Deviance Among Economic Elites"

12:45-1:45 Afternoon Feast

1:45-3:15 Reduced-dimensionality parameterizations for linear interaction terms when $n < 10$

1:45-2:30 Mac Lockhart "Voting Fast and Voting Slow: Decision Making as an Affective or Rational Process"

2:30-3:15 Taylor Carlson "Opening Monologue for a Job Talk" (Through the Grapevine: The Consequences of Social Information Transmission)

3:15-3:30 Mid-Afternoon Mini-feast

3:30-5:45 Bayesian change point analysis with bootstrapped pseudolikelihood using Microsoft Office Suite

3:30-4:15 Franziska Keller "Astroturfing on Twitter during the Korean Presidential Election"

4:15-5:00 Gregory Phillips "Inalienability and Coalition Bargaining in Civil War"

5:00 The "Yon Lupu Memorial Toast"

5:30 Evening Feast

8:00 Activities